

PATENTS

OVERVIEW

What is a Patent?

- The United States Patent and Trademark Office grants the inventor an intellectual property right
- Exclusive right to the invention
- Generally, the patent term is 20 years from the date the patent was filed

CRITERIA FOR PATENTING

- Must be a product or process
- Cannot patent a mathematical formula or natural phenomenon

Three Criteria

- Novel
- Utility
- Non-obvious