

Calling all K-12 educators and inventors:
Have you heard about the USPTO's

Patent Pro Bono Program?

Tuesday, March 30, 2021 • 6:00 – 7:30 p.m. ET • Online

March session description:

USPTO Presents the Patent Pro Bono Program

Do you want your students to know what resources are available and how to qualify to get free legal assistance in preparing and filing a patent application?

The USPTO Patent Pro Bono Program is a nationwide network of independently operated regional programs that match volunteer patent professionals with financially under-resourced inventors for securing patent protection.

Come join us and learn more about how this program can help you and your students throughout the innovation journey.

Register to attend this USPTO K-12 Workshop:

Space is limited! Register at
<https://bit.ly/3rg2iww>

For more information about educational programs, student and educator resources visit us at www.uspto.gov/kids

Presenter:

John Kirkpatrick, Staff Attorney, USPTO

John is a Patent Pro Bono Team member at the USPTO. He is dedicated to making sure that all inventors have access to the patent system, including those who are financially under-resourced. He works with patent pro bono programs across the nation to guarantee pro bono coverage in all 50 states pursuant to the Leahy-Smith America Invents Act (AIA).

UNITED STATES
PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

Follow us on social media:

